Claudia currently serves the WBCC as Chairwoman and Secretary and a First Step FastTrac® facilitator. She is also a founding board member and helped establish the WBCC by contributing as a Presenting Level Sponsor.

For over 8 years Claudia's clients have chosen to work with her because of her passion, integrity, and commitment to serve. What this means is she provides her clients with the confidence to take the steps necessary to become the "Captains" of their financial future and the capability to help them see their vision through to completion. The benefit to her clients is confidence in knowing that they are in a long-term relationship based on trust, therefore are able to spend their time doing what they are most passionate about.
